Prayer of Agreement: Living the “Let There Be”

Heavenly Father, Creator and Sustainer of all things...We come before You as Your sons and daughters seated in heavenly places, carrying Your Spirit, and fully restored by the finished work of Jesus Christ. We do not beg for what You've already given. We stand in faith and speak what You have already declared: “Let there be”—and it was so. Your Word still carries creative power. It still moves mountains. It still brings order to what has been disordered. And it still heals.

As those who believe, we now activate our spiritual authority in Christ. According to Matthew 18:18, we declare: “Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.”

So by this authority we speak in full agreement with Heaven:

WE BIND...

- Arthritis, inflammation, and joint damage
- Bone fractures, nerve disruption, and muscular weakness
- Degeneration, swelling, chronic pain, and discomfort
- All trauma stored in the body—whether emotional or physical
- Stress, guilt, depression, anxiety, fear, worry, and inner unrest

These have no legal right in the bodies of God's children. We cancel their assignment and send them to dry places in Jesus' name. They are not of God, and we refuse to house them in His temple—our bodies.

WE LOOSE...

- Divine healing to every system: skeletal, muscular, nervous, circulatory, respiratory, and immune.
 - Full restoration of eyesight—clarity, focus, and depth
 - Alignment of every ligament, nerve, joint, and muscle
 - The oil of joy for mourning, beauty for ashes, and the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness
 - Peace that passes all understanding and the joy of the Lord, which is our strength
 - Strength to grip again, move again, rise again, and believe again
 - The “Let there be” of Heaven into our DNA—coded by God, healed by the Blood
- To our eyes, we say: See with Heaven's clarity.

To our hands, we say: Move with Heaven's strength. To our bones, we say: Align with the voice of your Creator. To our hearts, we say: Receive peace, release trauma, and remember joy. We do not live from pain—we live from promise.

We do not speak what we see—we speak what God has said. We do not wait for healing—we enforce it.

For His Word is not void. It is living. Active. Sharper than any two-edged sword. And as His sheep—we hear His voice. When we repeat what He has spoken, all creation still obeys. So we speak...“It is finished. It is ours. It is done.” In Jesus' name, Amen.

LET THERE BE:

*Creation,
the Spoken Word,*

AND OUR

Spiritual Authority

©CHERYLVASHTI

There is a deep and holy mystery unfolding when we speak God's Word in faith. This is not wishful thinking or performance-based religion. It is the return to something ancient and eternal: the echo of creation itself still responding to the Creator's voice.

And here is the greater truth: that voice now lives in us.

When God said, "Let there be," in Genesis 1, He was not just speaking light and life into existence—He was setting in motion a spiritual law. He was releasing a divine frequency, a creative vibration that still resounds through time and matter. All of creation was programmed to recognize and respond to His Word.

Scripture tells us in Isaiah 55:11, "So shall My Word be that goes out from My mouth; it shall not return to Me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose." God's Word never returns void—it fulfills what it was sent to do.

The created world knows His voice because it was formed by it. Trees, light, sound, oceans, atoms, our very DNA—all bear the fingerprint of the Creator. That means when His Word is spoken again—not by Him directly, but by His children who carry His Spirit—creation responds again.

SHEEP WHO KNOW HIS VOICE

Jesus said in John 10:27, "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me." Most often this is taught to mean personal guidance—and that is certainly true. But what if it means more? What if Jesus was also saying: "My sheep speak with My voice—and creation obeys"?

The sun, moon, and stars obeyed when He spoke. Disease fled, demons trembled, and death released its grip at the sound of His command. That command—the Word of God—is now alive in us through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. When we speak His Word in faith, we are not asking—we are agreeing. We are not requesting—we are aligning.

Like Jesus, who said, "I only say what I hear the Father saying," we are learning to echo Heaven. And Heaven never returns void.

THE POWER OF SPIRITUAL AGREEMENT

When Scripture says, "Out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks" (Luke 6:45), and "Death and life are in the power of the tongue" (Proverbs 18:21), it's revealing the power of creative agreement. Our words either echo the broken system of the world—or they realign reality to Heaven's design. We are not just praying—we are enforcing God's will on earth as it already is in Heaven (Matthew 6:10).

This is why "Your Word I have hidden in my heart, that I might not sin against You" (Psalm 119:11) is not just about morality—it's about preserving spiritual alignment. When His Word is in your heart, you won't speak contrary to it. You won't sin—not just by doing wrong—but by calling things into your life that were never meant to exist.

This is why healing isn't about begging God to do something—it's about believing He already has. On the cross, Jesus said, "It is finished." Healing, deliverance, restoration, vision, strength—it's already done. He didn't halfway redeem us; He bore it all. "Surely He took up our pain and bore our suffering... and by His wounds we are healed." —Isaiah 53:4–5

HEALING: NOT A REQUEST, BUT A RESPONSE

Too often, we think we are waiting on God. But the truth is, God has already spoken. He already said, "Let there be..." and the systems within your body, including healing and regeneration, were coded to respond to that decree.

You're not asking for a miracle—you're accepting one. You're not trying to get something to happen—you're declaring what is already true in Heaven to manifest on earth. This is why healing prayers must shift from request to reception. You are not working to be healed—you are working to believe that you already are. "Bless the Lord... who heals all your diseases." —Psalm 103:3

"If the same Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He will also give life to your mortal bodies." —Romans 8:11
Every cell in your body was designed to hear its Creator. Your bones, nerves, eyes, blood, immune system—they still respond to the original frequency of the One who made them.

So when you, a daughter or son of God, speak the Word in faith, you release the same creative command:

- Let there be light in my eyes again.
- Let there be strength in my bones.
- Let there be harmony in my blood.
- Let there be clarity in my mind.
- Let there be restoration in my hand.

Not because you're trying to make it happen, but because you believe it already has.

CREATION STILL OBEYS

Creation doesn't need convincing. It hears the voice that formed it—now through your voice, as His vessel. This is why faith matters: because creation obeyed by default, but we obey by choice—by faith. And when faith and the Word align, everything changes.

That's why you feel this stirring inside—it's the Spirit reminding you: you are not powerless. You are not waiting. You are enforcing what has already been written.

So speak it. Let His Word become the meditation of your heart and the vibration of your voice. Let every atom of your being echo Heaven. Let your world be shaped by His truth.

Let there be. And there was. Now "let there be" in you. And watch what happens.

"CREATION
STILL RECOGNIZES THE VOICE OF THE CREATOR—
AND WHEN I, AS HIS SHEEP,
SPEAK HIS WORD
FROM THE HEART,
THE WORLD AROUND ME
ALIGNS.
I AM NOT TRYING TO GET
HEAVEN'S ATTENTION—
I AM RELEASING WHAT
HEAVEN ALREADY DECLARED.
WHEN GOD SAID,
'LET THERE BE,'
HE WAS NOT JUST CREATING—HE WAS CODING THE UNIVERSE TO RESPOND TO HIS WORD.
THAT WORD NOW
LIVES IN ME.
SO I SPEAK NOT FROM
WISHFUL THINKING,
BUT FROM DIVINE KNOWING."

THE POWER OF INTERCESSION: EARTH'S VOICE, HEAVEN'S MOVE

©CHERYLVASHTI

There is a holy weight to what we are doing. This is not ordinary prayer. This is the divine echo of Heaven released through our voices on earth.

Where two or three are gathered in His name, God is in the midst—listening, responding, and aligning Heaven with Earth. As intercessors, we do not simply pray; we co-labor with God. Our voices carry His Word, His power, and His authority, our hearts carry His burden, and our unity carries His presence and readiness to move.

When we come together in His name, not our fear, not our frustration, but His Word—we don't just agree with each other—we invite Heaven's government into earthly matters. We speak out God's promises and plans, sending them forth His Truth like arrows into every situation and intrusion that seems tangled, hearts that feel hardened, and outcomes that look delayed, that tries to defy His purpose.

When God created, His Word programmed all creation to follow His design for it. His voice wasn't just sound—it was structure. It was His DNA embedded into creation. Everything He spoke was set into order by the power of His breath, and nothing He created ever loses its original purpose.

That means what God originally designed is not lost—it's simply waiting to be called back into alignment.

THAT IS WHERE WE COME IN.

God has given us the authority on earth to speak His Word and activate Heaven's intention. Jesus told us plainly: "If you say to this mountain, 'Be removed and cast into the sea,' and do not doubt in your heart, it will be done."

The mountain doesn't move because we beg. It moves because we speak. This is building our faith.

This is not hoping. This is holy war through holy agreement. This is what happens when His Word leaves our lips with belief in our hearts—He listens.

And not only listens... He acts. "He watches over His Word to perform it." (Jeremiah 1:12) Heaven recognizes its own Word in our mouths.

And Jesus said: "Greater works than these shall you do..." — John 14:12 (NKJV)

We are not powerless observers. We are not victims of circumstances.

We are not waiting for God to "decide" something He already finished.

We are the earthly vessels through which His preordained "WILL" becomes visible.

Heaven has already written the blueprint. We are the ones who activate it by agreement, by decree, and by faith-filled confession.

"Your kingdom come. Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven."
— Matthew 6:10 (ESV)

This is why speaking the Word matters. This is why unity in intercession matters. This is why our agreement must be firm and faith-filled.

When we pray, declare, and stand as one: Mountains move. Darkness shifts. Healing manifests. Truth rises. Heaven responds.

Not because of us—but because He placed His Word in our mouths and His Spirit in our hearts.

So, beloved intercessors, let's speak life with the assurance that the atmosphere bends to His will, that truth always outlasts deception, and that love—His love—never fails.

As we continue to send His truth out to activate what's already written, keep your heart tender. Keep your words bold. Keep your spirit tuned.

The Lord is among us. The Lord is with us. And He is always listening.

And we will see it. On earth, as it is in Heaven.

"Let our intercession shake the heavens and shift the earth—for this is not just prayer... it is purpose in motion."

His Word is not passive.
It's a force. A key. A seed. A code.

THANK YOU

Dear Community of Love Partners,

As we stand at the threshold of a new year, our hearts are full. We are deeply grateful to God for allowing us to witness the close of another year—one marked by His faithfulness, His mercy, and His unwavering goodness. He has been good, is good, and will always be only good.

We are equally grateful for you—our partners, our family, our co-laborers. Your generosity, your prayers, and your steady commitment to the work of Community of Love Ministries mean more than words can fully express. Because of your openhearted support, the gospel continues to move forward. Lives are being touched. Hearts are being strengthened. Souls are being introduced to the Kingdom. Hope is being restored. And every one of those victories is tied to your faithfulness. When we stand before the Lord to receive rewards for the work done in His name, you will stand beside us—not behind us—as true partners in this ministry. Each changed life is your harvest as much as ours.

We thank God for what you have given, but we also thank Him for what He has promised you in return. Jesus declared, “Give, and it shall be given unto you—good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over...” (Luke 6:38, KJV). We believe that promise still speaks today. We believe God sees your generosity. And we believe He will bless you—not only in the life to come, but in this life as well.

Our hearts overflow with gratitude, with thanksgiving, and with expectancy for what God will reveal in the coming year. We pray that 2025 brings you and your family a deeper experience of His goodness, His provision, and His peace. We pray that every seed you have sown returns to you multiplied and flourishing.

Thank you, again, for walking with us. Thank you for believing in the work. Thank you for helping us carry God’s love into the lives of others. We speak God’s richest blessings over every area of your life.

With our deepest gratitude,
Community of Love Ministries
God bless you!

It's not necessary that we all agree.

It is my hope that you see the truth within my words for

When the Trap Turns Back: THE STRENGTH OF STAYING Faithful

There are battles we never thought we'd have to fight—especially the kind that come from those who once stood close. And yet, there are times when the fiercest blows are not thrown by enemies, but by those who once called us family, friend, or even partner.

When lies are spoken against you... When systems are manipulated to silence or punish you... When someone builds a case to destroy your peace, your parenting, your presence... The temptation to fight back the same way is real. But what if the higher path is not retaliation, but restraint? What if the most powerful move is not to attack, but to remain faithful—still, steady, and anchored in truth?

God dropped this story in my spirit—when I was in prayer about a critical circumstance involving a storm that has been hanging over my families life. This story hasn't let go of me since.

There is a story in the book of Esther that reveals how God responds to injustice. Haman—a man fueled by pride and control—used lies to influence laws and construct traps for Mordecai, a faithful man who refused to bow to anything but God. Haman built a gallows—an execution device—for Mordecai, confident that his power would prevail. But God had other plans.

In a stunning reversal, the very trap Haman built was used to expose his intentions. At the banquet where Haman thought he would be honored, the truth was revealed. He fell into the very destruction he designed for someone else.

This story isn't just history—it's a divine principle. God does not overlook injustice. He does not stay silent forever. He sees the motives behind the manipulation. And He knows how to turn the tables without you ever lifting a hand in vengeance.

But here's the catch: Mordecai didn't fight back like Haman. He didn't retaliate. He remained faithful. He fasted. He prayed. He stood still. And that's what made the difference.

In every generation, there are people who will weaponize their pain. They'll twist truth to control outcomes. They'll accuse, restrict, and manipulate—all while believing they're winning.

But unless they repent, they are unknowingly tightening the noose of their own undoing.

This is not a call to wish destruction on anyone. God is merciful. He desires that all hearts turn back to Him. But He is also just. And when deceit is relentless and repentance is refused, He allows the weight of that deception to collapse on itself.

So what should you do when you're the one being targeted? When your name is being dragged, when your intentions are being questioned, when your rights are being ignored.

Remain faithful. Do not fight back in the manner you're being fought. Stay rooted in integrity.

Let God be your defense. Because when the tables turn—and they will—it will be clear that it wasn't your hands that brought justice. It was His.

Justice doesn't always come swiftly, but it does surely come. And the same gallows someone built for your destruction may become the moment God uses to display His justice—and your innocence.

RECAP:

- Haman set out to destroy Mordecai, twisting laws and influencing people with lies.
- Mordecai remained faithful, prayerful, and steadfast, even when it looked hopeless.
- God turned the tables at the banquet — Haman was destroyed by the very trap he built, and Mordecai was honored instead. That is exactly the picture God is showing us, that:
- Lies and manipulations will not stand.
- Every trap set for you will fall back on the one who set it.
- God's timing may feel slow, but His justice is sure and unshakable.

This is not about cruelty. God doesn't desire destruction, but He does establish justice. And sometimes that means letting the consequences of someone's own deceit catch up with them. The "noose" is the cycle of falsehood and control the accuser has built. Unless the accuser repents, they may lose the very thing they are trying to take away or destroy — not because you fight dirty, but because God fights fair.

This is how I see it...

Peace on Earth, Goodwill Toward Men!

by michael gordon

I heard the bells on Christmas Day...
And wild and sweet the words repeat,
Peace on earth, goodwill toward men."

THE TRUE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS PEACE

Christmas is far more than a holiday or a season of exchanging gifts. It is a sacred reminder of peace, goodwill, and fellowship. Not simply in the sentimental way our favorite Christmas carols express it—though we cherish them—but in a much deeper and eternal way.

When we speak of Christmas peace, we are not just referring to the absence of conflict between nations. We are speaking of the peace that was accomplished when God sent His Son, Jesus, into a sinful and broken world.

Because of man's willful disobedience and rebellion against a loving God, there was separation between God and humanity. God had every right to execute judgment to satisfy the righteous wrath caused by sin. Yet instead, God—overflowing with extraordinary love—chose to enter our world to restore peace. Man sinned, but God responded with love. Man rebelled, but God responded with peace.

Through Jesus Christ, God has given the world a peace that no earthly treaty can produce and no worldly conflict can destroy.

GOODWILL TOWARD MAN

Christmas is also a celebration of God's goodwill toward humanity. This is not simply goodwill between people, but God's intentional act of kindness toward us.

God gave us the greatest gift—His only begotten Son—wrapped in human flesh, born in a humble manger, and destined to be our sacrifice. Though God could have left humanity to suffer the eternal consequences of sin, He instead provided a solution that restored our relationship with Him.

Because of Jesus Christ, God's heart toward us is filled with goodwill, mercy, and grace.

THE FELLOWSHIP OF EMMANUEL

Christmas is about peace. Christmas is about goodwill. Christmas is about fellowship. While we honor the season by spending time with family and friends, fellowship takes on a much deeper meaning when we reflect on what God accomplished at Christmas.

The name Emmanuel literally means "God with us." God loved us so deeply that He chose to leave His heavenly throne, set aside visible glory, and take on human flesh to dwell among us.

The incarnation is far more than a beautiful manger scene on a lawn or in a window. It is the astonishing truth that God came close—close enough to touch, close enough to speak, close enough to save.

My heart leaps when I consider the love and sacrifice God demonstrated through Jesus Christ. He showed us what true fellowship looks like. He showed us the depth of love, the cost of giving, and the measure of grace. God did for us what we could never do for ourselves. He came to live with us so that we could live in Him.

GOD'S MEDICINE CABINET: HEALING FOODS AND HERBS MENTIONED IN SCRIPTURE

by michaelaarongordon

Long before pharmacies and prescription plans, God stocked the Earth with everything we'd ever need to heal. His first pharmacy was nature itself—and the shelves are still open.

Let's peek inside God's Medicine Cabinet and see what He left us.

1. OLIVE OIL – THE LIQUID BLESSING

Used for anointing, cooking, and healing wounds, olive oil is rich in antioxidants and heart-healthy fats. It lowers inflammation, supports brain health, and symbolizes peace and purity throughout Scripture.

2. HONEY – SWEET HEALING

Proverbs 16:24 says, "Pleasant words are like a honeycomb, sweetness to the soul and health to the bones." Raw honey is antibacterial, antiviral, and full of enzymes. It soothes sore throats, boosts immunity, and—if local—can even ease allergies.

3. FIG – THE FIBER FIXER

When Hezekiah was sick, Isaiah prescribed a poultice of figs (2 Kings 20:7). Figs support digestion, regulate blood sugar, and feed good gut bacteria. Plus, they taste like dessert straight from heaven.

4. GARLIC AND ONIONS – THE ARMOR FOODS

Though not mentioned by name in the Bible's healing stories, both grew abundantly in ancient Israel and were used as natural antibiotics. Modern science confirms they fight infections and boost heart health.

5. FRANKINCENSE AND MYRRH – THE ROYAL REMEDIES

These weren't just baby gifts for Jesus—they were powerful medicinal resins used to reduce inflammation, fight bacteria, and support the immune system. Their aroma alone can calm the mind and lift the spirit.

6. HYSSOP – THE HOLY CLEANSER

Mentioned in Psalms and Exodus, hyssop was used for purification rituals. Today, hyssop tea or essential oil can support respiratory health and gentle detoxification.

FINAL THOUGHT:

Every plant, fruit, and herb carries God's fingerprint. Before we reach for man-made medicine, we can first reach for what He already placed on Earth to restore us.

And as always, if God didn't make it, I don't take it.

G.O.D. (GREENS ON DECK) Healthy Habits

'Let food be thy medicine and medicine be thy food.'
Hippocrates —

HOMEMADE ANTIVIRAL SYRUP

(FROM LOST HERBS)

INGREDIENTS

- 10 CLOVES GARLIC
- ½ ORGANIC ORANGE WITH PEEL
(OR YOU MAY USE LEMON)
- 3-INCH FRESH GINGER ROOT
- ½ CUP RAW HONEY

STEPS:

- Crush and chop garlic then set it aside for 10 minutes to allow it to release its healing compounds
- Finely chop the ginger.
- Slice the unpeeled orange, remove the seeds and chop into smaller pieces.
- Put the chopped orange, ginger and garlic in a mason jar. Pour honey over the ingredients until well covered. You can add more honey to cover them completely if needed.
- Cover with a lid and let it soak.

Hippocrates —

'Let food be thy medicine and medicine be thy food.'

HOW TO USE:

You can take the remedy as soon as you mix it. But for better potency, it is best to let it sit for a longer time. If you want, you can let your remedy ferment. Fermentation will be done after a month or so. But you can still keep it going so that it ages more. The fermentation will make the honey runny and darken the garlic. But this isn't a cause for concern as it is bound to happen.

Take 2 to 3 teaspoons of the mixture a day. Use a clean spoon every time to prevent contamination. The mixture can last for about three months on the countertop.

If you don't feel like eating the spices, you may strain the syrup and just use the liquid part instead. But for a stronger antiviral effect, eating everything in the mixture is the best. You may substitute the orange with any citrus fruit if you want.

PRAYER

by michael gordon

DECLARATION PRAYER: I STAND IN WHAT'S ALREADY DONE

Father,

I don't beg — I believe. I don't plead — I proclaim. You've already declared it in Heaven, and I now speak it in the earth.

I stand in full agreement with Your Word. I stand on the foundation of Christ's finished work. I speak to every mountain standing in the way of Your divine plan — Move, in Jesus' name. I walk by faith, not by sight.

Though the natural may waver, the Spirit never lies. Your promises are yes and amen — and I say Amen to what's already been spoken in eternity.

Let the process build me. Let patience have her perfect work in me. But let no doubt take root in my heart.

The Word I carry is alive. It is sharper than any two-edged sword. It divides truth from lies, light from shadows, and it never returns void.

So I speak, not to inform You, Lord, but to enforce what You have already decreed. It is finished. It is unfolding. And it is mine. In the mighty name of Jesus, Amen.

PLAN OF SALVATION

Jesus loved you enough to die for YOU so that you could have eternal life. (John 3:16) If you believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, He will come into your life now. (Acts 16:33; Luke 13:3) Just do these four things to begin your new life in Christ.

1. Realize that God loves you and has a good plan for your life. (John 3:16; Romans 10:10)
2. Realize that Man is sinful and separated from God and, therefore, cannot know or experience God's love and plan. (Romans 3:23; Romans 6:23)
3. Realize that Jesus Christ is God's only provision for man's sin. Only through Him can you know and experience God's love and plan. (Romans 5:5; 1 Corinthians 15:3-6)
4. Realize that we must individually receive Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. Then we can know and experience God's love and plan for our lives. (John 1:12; Ephesians 2:8-9; John 3:1-8)

If you are ready, I invite you to pray this prayer and God will come into your life right now: Lord Jesus, I need You. Thank You for dying on the cross for my sins. I open the door of my life and receive You as my Lord and Savior. Thank You for forgiving my sins and giving me eternal life. Take control of my life and make me the kind of person You want me to be.
